SASKATCHEWAN MUSLIMS LAUD ARREST OF TERROR SUSPECTS

(REGINA) - A Saskatchewan-based Muslim advocacy organization was pleased today to see Canadian security agencies pre-empt a possible terrorist plot in southern Ontario.

RCMP officers arrested several individuals in Ontario during raids that took place Friday night.

In a statement released today, Muslims for Peace & Justice (MPJ) said:

"We laud our nation's security agencies for making these arrests and thwarting a possible terrorist attack.

"We understand that the arrested individuals have been charged under the Criminal Code of Canada, and therefore, we hope that all charges and prosecution will be public. This will allow Canadians to learn about the leadership, sources, and extremist views that may have been used to influence those arrested. As such, Canadian Muslims will be better prepared to be vigilant of extremists."
