

Muslims are also upset by Jesus cartoon

The Leader-Post
Tuesday, March 14, 2006

Muslims would like to express their dismay at the printing of the highly offensive cartoon of Jesus in the University of Saskatchewan student newspaper The Sheaf, all the more since The Sheaf had shown sound judgement in not printing the cartoons of Mohammed earlier.

In Islam, Jesus is regarded as a revered Prophet of God. The Muslim community shares the sentiments of all Christians who have found the cartoon a complete disregard for the sanctity of a venerated religious figure.

Although The Sheaf's apology is welcomed and the right to freedom of expression is valued, we feel intelligent debates can be expressed without the presence of derogatory and hateful material.

Zeba Hashmi

Hashmi is general secretary, Muslims for Peace & Justice.

© The Leader-Post (Regina) 2006